President's Day Buyer's Agent Promotion!!!

Bring an offer that is accepted between February 8, 2019 and President's Day (February 18) and be rewarded a $1,000 bonus!

Nestled in a cozy community you will feel at home immediately. Upon entering this warm and inviting home you will be excited to see every detail. Whether relaxing or entertaining the downstairs areas offer an abundance of space and gleaming hardwood. The kitchen offers new high-end energy efficient appliances, great for the home chef (with a dine-in nook for family time). After a long day, retire upstairs to the master suite and two additional bedrooms. Weekends will be great with a large fenced yard and spectacular in-ground pool. Need extra space? The finished basement offers two additional large rooms that can become a play area or a work-from-home space. However one of the best features may be what you don't see. With the energy producing solar panels you will just love the benefit (and savings). Schedule a showing today to see for yourself!
